

Reader's Notes	Name: _____
Time: _____	Due date: _____

Citation. Complete the citation below. Use the title page in the book to collect this information.

Title:	_____
First author:	_____
Second author:	_____
Third author:	_____
City of Publication:	_____
Publisher:	_____
Copyright Year:	_____
Number of pages:	_____

Central Idea. The author(s) often state the purpose for writing the book in the introduction. If not, analyze the book title, chapter titles, and recurring themes to discover what the author is trying to communicate.

Central idea:	_____

Purpose. Books are written to inform people of important topics. While reading, ask why the book is important and why should people care.

Importance of topic:	_____

Note Taking. Take notes on the important ideas/events. These notes will help write the speech.

Point 1:
Main idea / Event:	_____

Fact / Detail / Example:	_____

Fact / Detail / Example:	_____

Point 2:

Main idea / Event:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Point 3:

Main idea / Event:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Point 4:

Main idea / Event:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Point 5:

Main idea / Event:

Fact / Detail / Example:

Fact / Detail / Example:
